

THE STORY OF A CRIME.

The Queer Revelation of a Villainous Conspiracy.

A Negro Being Caught in a Cowardly Deed Makes a Strange Revelation—An Innocent Man Is Punished.

WARRENTON, Ga., March 18.—Several nights ago, in Lincoln County, the house of a respectable citizen was entered by a burly negro who attempted to assault a lady. Wrenching himself from his grasp, she escaped up her lane and entered in the darkness through half a mile of swamp to the house of a neighbor. The wife had not more than gone away, when the husband, with a neighbor, entered the front door to see a negro make his exit through the rear. They overtook him, when a fearful struggle took place. Finally the men bound the negro and took him to Lincoln jail where he was recognized as James Henderson, who is popularly credited with many crimes. A movement to lynch Henderson was organized, in which white as well as white were concerned. Sheriff Bruce Long organized a posse and moved the prisoner to Wilkes County. Prominent among those who advanced for lynch was George P. Murphy. As soon as that became known to Henderson, he confessed to a conspiracy which explains a case of arson which was a sensation two years ago. For this crime Mr. Blanchard, one of the best citizens of the county, was arraigned on the testimony of Jack Henderson, George P. Murphy, and J. N. Tarver, a white man. So high was Blanchard's standing that the people still had confidence in his innocence. Now Henderson confesses that the whole thing was a conspiracy. A warrant was once issued for Tarver and Murphy on the charge of perjury.

SHE CHANGED HER MIND.

A Young Wife Almost Persuaded to Face the Footlights.
St. Louis, March 18.—Saturday night the list of mysterious disappearances kept by the police was enlarged by a report of the disappearance of M. Long, wife of J. M. Long, of the firm of Long & Krass, doing business at 211 Chestnut street. They boarded at 1208 Washington avenue. Long left home Saturday afternoon to visit a Miss May Greenleaf, a friend of the late Isaacson's. Several weeks ago Miss Greenleaf boarded at the Atlantic Hotel, and Mrs. Long called and said until a o'clock, when she left, saying she would meet Mrs. G. at the depot that night, to bid her good-bye, as the figure was going to Chicago to take a variety engagement. Mr. Long became anxious about his wife late in the evening, and inquired at the Atlantic, but could not find her. Yesterday afternoon he received a letter from her, written Saturday afternoon, in which she said she was going to visit her mother in Chilpeewa Falls, Wis. Shortly after the receipt of the letter the lady was found and returned to her home. She had been stage-struck, and intended to seek an advent to the profession with Miss Greenleaf, but soon learned she had made a mistake.

TERRORS OF TRICHINOSIS.

A Whole Family Falls Victims to the Awful Disease.

LATHROP, Pa., March 18.—A strange case of poisoning was developed near the Loyal Hannes shaft. A family named Shulteis consisting of husband, wife and two children, during the food suffered severely from desultory. They secured some fresh pork, of which they ate great quantities, and in a few days passed, when they were taken ill and symptoms of trichinosis set in. The woman, Mrs. Maria Shulteis, died and was buried yesterday. The husband is now expected to die. Her two brothers are gradually getting worse, with the probability of a fatal issue.

Ocean Declares a "Holy War."

STAMPA, March 18.—Ocean declares a "holy war" now waged against the British. Her 3,000 followers are daily receiving fresh accessions to her forces. He has sent 150 orders to watch the movements of Graham, with orders to kill all stragglers found. The chiefs of the various tribes command Admiral Hewitt's offer of a reward of 2,000 for the head of Ocean Dignia, and some tribes have already over-landed.

Portrait of George Washington.

WASHINGTON, March 18.—A curiosity of art has recently been received here from France, N. C. It is one of the eight original portraits of George Washington by Gilbert Stuart. There are letters of identification accompanying it by Sholly, the artist, and other Philadelphiaans. It is in a good state of preservation. The portrait came through the Wolfers family, from Philadelphia in 1859.
